Bin

it right! EUR is working towards a campus without waste

The EUR wants to become one of the most sustainable universities in the Netherlands. Separating waste is part of this and we are going to improve that considerably. Our goal is to separate 75% of our waste and reduce the total amount of waste by 2021, and for that we need everyone on campus. On this page you can read about which waste we separate and what is done with it. Read more.
