SECTION 1 – GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1.1 – Applicability of the regulations

These regulations are applicable to the curriculum and examinations of the master degree programmes in Arts & Culture, History, Media Studies and the Research Master in Sociology of Culture, Media and the Arts, hereinafter referred to as the “degree programme(s)” and include the degree programme specific rights and obligations of students following the degree programme in the academic year 2022-2023. The general university Student’s Charter stipulates the rights and obligations applicable to all students of the Erasmus University Rotterdam (EUR).

The degree programmes in Arts & Culture, History and Media Studies are offered by the Erasmus School of History, Culture and Communication (ESHCC) at Erasmus University Rotterdam.

The research master degree programme in Sociology of Culture, Media and the Arts is offered by Erasmus School of History, Culture and Communication (ESHCC) and the Erasmus School of Social and Behavioural Sciences (ESSB) at Erasmus University Rotterdam.

The degree programme is subject to the provisions set out in the Higher Education and Research Act (WHW).

Regulations for courses and exams that are mentioned in the degree programme’s online study guide, the website that sets out the teaching plan for the degree programme, and the course guides of individual courses follow from this TER.

These regulations are available in a Dutch and English version. In case of doubt or ambiguity, the Dutch version of these regulations applies.

Article 1.2 – Definitions

In these regulations, the following definitions apply:

Academic year	the period that starts on 1 September and ends on 31 August of the following year;
Admissions Committee	a committee mandated by the Dean of the Faculty which assesses whether a prospective student can be admitted to the degree programme and -if applicable - selects the most suitable students for the programme;
Course	one (examination) component of the degree programme as referred to in section 7.3 of the WHW, which is awarded credits;
Course guide	a written document containing information about the objectives, working method and structure of a course, the assessment method, the mandatory literature and the lecturer’s office hours, which can be found on Canvas, under Files;

Any remaining terms are understood as they are referred to in the WHW.

Article 1.3 – Evaluation of education

1. The Vice Dean of Education will ensure the evaluation of education.
2. The Vice Dean of Education will inform the Faculty Council and the Programme Committees of the method and frequency with which curriculum components are to be evaluated.
3. The Vice Dean of Education will inform the Faculty Council and the Programme Committees of the outcomes of the evaluation, the amendments made as a result of this and the effect of the actual amendments.
4. The Programme Committees will advise the Vice Dean of Education on the methods of evaluation and curriculum assessment and will initiate or suggest possible improvements in the evaluation of education.
5. The Programme Committees have the right of consent with regard to the method and frequency of the evaluation of education.

SECTION 2 – PREVIOUS EDUCATION AND ADMISSION

Article 2.1 – Admissions moment

The programme has one admissions moment: at the start of the academic year (September). The application deadlines for the various specialisation programmes can be found on the website.

Article 2.2 – Bachelor-before-master-rule

Having a bachelor's degree as defined in Article 7.30b first section of the WHW is a prerequisite for admission to the master's degree programme.

Article 2.3 – Entry requirements

1. In addition, to the prerequisite in art. 2.2, the degree programmes stipulate a number of entry requirements for prospective students and are only open to students who are offered placement in the programme.
2. The programme specific entry requirements and selection procedure are stipulated in Appendix 1-4.

SECTION 3 – CONTENT AND STRUCTURE OF THE PROGRAMME

Article 3.1 – Objective of the programme

1. The intention of the degree programme is to confer such knowledge, insight and skills in the (research) field of Arts & Culture, History or Media Studies, that the graduate is able to fulfil a position at master level in the labour market. This objective is specified in intended learning outcomes.
2. The intended learning outcomes per degree programme are specified in Appendix 5-8.

Article 3.2 – Full-time / part-time

1. The degree programmes in Arts & Culture, History and Media Studies are day programmes and can be followed both full-time and part-time. The programme takes one year full-time and two years part-time.
2. Within the scope of the WHW, the research master degree programme in Sociology of Culture, Media and the Arts is only offered on a full-time basis. The degree programme takes two years full-time.

Article 3.3 – Language of instruction and assessment

1. The language of instruction and assessment in Arts & Culture, History and the English language specialisations in Media Studies is English. Therefore, all courses and exams are offered in English. All papers and assignments are written and presented in English.
2. Within the specialisation programme Media & Journalistiek: the language of instruction and assessment is Dutch, unless indicated otherwise in the course guide.

Article 3.4 – Participation in degree programme related activities

Students are supposed to participate in every educational activity that the degree programme offers irrespective of whether the activities are mandatory or not. This concerns not only lectures and study visits but also the completion of course evaluations. The activities which are mandatory for passing each course are specified in the course guide on Canvas.

Article 3.5 – Study workload and duration

1. The degree programmes in Arts & Culture, History and Media Studies are one-year programmes with a study load of 60 credits.
2. The Research master degree programme in Sociology of Culture, Media and the Arts is a two-year programme, with a study load of 120 credits.

Article 3.6 – Master’s examination and exams

1. The parts of the curriculum that are part of the master's examination shall be determined by the Dean of the Faculty.
2. The master’s examination consists of the exam units as mentioned in Appendix 9-12.

Article 3.7 – Tutorials, seminars, workshops and workgroups

The courses of the degree programme mentioned in Appendix 9-12 and 14-16 include tutorials, seminars, workshops and/or workgroups, which involve mandatory classes in which students meet under supervision of an examiner to discuss course materials, coursework and work on assignments. What the tutorials/seminars/workshops/workgroups entail and how much time they take is set out in the course guide that is provided for each course.

Article 3.8 – Attendance and participation requirement

1. The student is expected to actively participate in every course.
2. There is an attendance requirement for the mandatory classes (Art. 3.7). This means that passing an exam for a course as mentioned in Appendix 9-12 and 14-16 is only achieved when the appropriate tutorials/seminars/workgroups/workshops have been satisfactorily followed.
3. In addition to the general requirement that the student is present and actively participates, additional requirements are described in the course guide of the respective course.
4. When a student cannot attend a mandatory class, the student must inform the examiner prior to the mandatory class.
5. A student who is absent from two mandatory classes will still meet the attendance requirements if the student has attended all the other mandatory classes. However, any regular assignments which are missed must still be completed.
6. A student who has been absent three times or more will be excluded from the course and will have to retake the course in a subsequent year. The decision to exclude the student after three absences or more is taken by the examiner. Examiners can decide to apply a form of leniency if they have consulted with the student advisor and extenuating circumstances apply.

Article 3.9 – Course registration

1. The student is personally responsible for accurate and timely registration for the courses the student needs to sit.
2. Students will be automatically registered for all mandatory courses. Registration for electives, research workshops etc. takes place via the Studyplan.
3. It is not possible to register for courses after the start of the Term.
4. The maximum workload per Term is 15 EC. Only in exceptional circumstances may a student exceed the maximum workload per Term after approval of the Education Programme Director. Students participating in an honours programme (cf. Art. 5.3) are exempted from this rule.
5. Students who have failed a (mandatory) course will not automatically be registered for this course again in the subsequent academic year, but will need to complete the Course Retake Form before the deadline stipulated on the degree programme's website.

SECTION 4 – MASTER PROGRAMME ARTS & CULTURE

Article 4.1 – Specialisation programmes

The degree programme Arts & Culture contains three specialisation programmes and the student is required to complete one of these specialisation programmes in its entirety:

- a. Cultural Economics and Entrepreneurship
- b. Arts, Culture and Society
- c. Tourism, Culture & Society

Article 4.2 – Composition of the specialisation programmes

The courses included in the specialisation programmes are listed in Appendix 9.

SECTION 5 – MASTER PROGRAMME HISTORY

Article 5.1 – Specialisation programmes

The degree programme History has three specialisation programmes and the student is required to complete one of these specialisation programmes in its entirety:

- a. Applied History (AH)
- b. Global History and International Relations (GHIR)
- c. Global Markets, Local Creativities (GLOCAL)

Article 5.2 – Composition of the master specialisations

The courses included in the specialisation programmes are listed in Appendix 10.

Article 5.3 – Honours Degree programme

The Honours Degree programme comprises an extension of the degree programme with 20 credits.

1. The Honours Degree programme consists of:
 - a) One, two or three extra seminars or summer schools (totalling 15 credits) in the field of the specialisation programme, chosen from master programmes at a Dutch or foreign university or an activity that is equal to a seminar, leading to a separately identifiable and verifiable product. Products resulting from “activities that are equal to a seminar” (e.g. a publishable article or a PhD research proposal) will be graded by the thesis supervisor and the master coordinator (technical reader).
 - b) An extension of the Master's Thesis with at least 5 credits, in the form of a separately identifiable and verifiable (academic) product.
2. Only students who have obtained 20 credits after term 2 and received a minimum mark of “8” for their research proposal can be admitted to the Honours Degree programme.

SECTION 6 – MASTER PROGRAMME MEDIA STUDIES

Article 6.1 – Specialisation programmes

The degree programme Media Studies contains five specialisation programmes and the student is required to complete one of these specialisation programmes in its entirety:

- a. Digitalisation, Surveillance & Societies
- b. Media & Business
- c. Media & Creative Industries
- d. Media, Culture & Society
- e. Media & Journalistiek (in Dutch)

Article 6.2 – Composition of the specialisation programmes

The courses included in the specialisation programmes are listed in Appendix 11.

Article 6.3 – International exchange

High performing and motivated students of Media Studies are offered the opportunity to go on an extracurricular international exchange in the fall semester (term 1 + term 2), following the one-year master programme. The following conditions apply:

1. The following minimum requirements for an exchange apply.

At the time of application and selection for exchange:

- a. Students should have passed all term 1 courses (15 credits);
- b. Students' average grade for the courses in term 1 should be at least 7.0;

At the time of application to the partner university:

- c. Students' thesis proposal has received a Pass

At the time of departure for exchange:

- d. Students have passed all master courses, including the Master Thesis (60 credits);
- e. Students' average grade for the courses is at least 7.0;
- f. Students have presented a motivated coursework overview for their study abroad period which has to be approved by the Examination Board before they leave.
- g. Students have submitted proof of their proficiency in the language of instruction of the partner university (at B2 level or higher).

2. Available places at each partner university will be limited: selection will be based on academic performance, motivation.

Article 6.4 – Master Thesis

1. The Master Thesis is the product of independent research carried out by an individual student and will be assessed on an individual basis.
2. The supervision, submission and assessment of the Master Thesis is subject to the guidelines, procedures, timetables and criteria as stipulated in the course guides for the Master Class and Master Thesis and on the degree programme's website.

SECTION 7 – RESEARCH MASTER PROGRAMME IN SOCIOLOGY OF CULTURE, MEDIA AND THE ARTS

Article 7.1 – Curriculum of the degree programme

1. The first year counts 60 credits and comprises the following components, with the study load in credits (see also Appendix 12):
 - Theoretical Core Courses: 20 credits
 - Methodological Core Courses: 15 credits
 - Research Traineeship: 15 credits
 - Elective course at relevant national graduate school: 5 credits
 - Elective research workshop at EUR or research master course at other Dutch University: 5 credits.
2. The second year counts 60 credits and comprises the following components, with the study load in credits (see also Appendix 12):

- International conference participation: 5 credits
 - International exchange: 20 credits (cf. Art. 7.3)
 - Advanced methods course: 5 credits
 - Research Master Seminar: 5 credits
 - Master Thesis: 25 credits
3. Students may choose to take the advanced research methods course as part of their exchange. In that case their exchange course work equals 25 credits.

Article 7.2 – External courses in the degree programme

1. To earn credits for any external course, the student must obtain approval from the Examination Board. The student must submit a formal request at least eight weeks before the course starts via OSIRIS Student.
2. External courses taken at a Dutch university will only be accepted for credits if the courses are outside the field of expertise of the examiners working at the Faculty or Erasmus University.
3. External courses should be taken at the master's level.
4. With regard to the conversion and acceptance of results achieved while studying abroad and the marks recorded for these results, the arrangements for incorporating exchange courses into the study programme published in the study guide or on the website are applicable. These details are also available from the international exchange coordinator and the designated student advisor at the ESHCC.

Article 7.3 – International exchange

In the second year of their studies, students of the degree programme are required to spend an exchange period at a foreign partner university.

1. Students have to present a motivated plan for their exchange period which has to be approved by the Examination Board before they leave.
2. Students are required to take at least 20 credits worth of courses in the field of the sociology, media and communication, arts and culture studies or related areas at their foreign host university. Students may choose to take the advanced research methods course as part of their exchange. In that case their exchange course work equals 25 credits.
3. Students can only take a study abroad period in the first semester (term 1 and 2) of their second year.
4. If the course schedule of the partner university allows for it, students may choose to spend only the first quarter (term 1) of their year abroad.
5. Minimum requirements for an exchange at the time of students' application are:
 - a) students should have completed all mandatory first year courses (max 5 credits missing)
 - b) students are required to submit proof of their proficiency in the language of instruction of the partner university.
6. Available places at each partner university will be limited: selection will be based on students' academic performance and motivation.
7. Only in exceptional circumstances and after approval of the Education Programme Director, international students who have at least one year of international academic experience outside their country of origin in the three years preceding the research master in Sociology, Culture, Media and the Arts may be exempted from the requirement to go on an exchange. In that case, they take elective courses at other universities in the Netherlands or Flanders or, if not possible, at EUR in the first half of their second year.

SECTION 8 - ASSESSMENT

Article 8.1 – General

1. During the degree programme the student will be assessed on academic development to determine whether the student has achieved the intended learning outcomes.

2. The course guide specifies the performance the student must meet in order to successfully complete each course as well as the criteria on which the student will be assessed.
3. In the Rules & Guidelines of the Examination Board the procedures concerning assessment are described.
4. The student is personally responsible for accurate and timely registration for the exams the student needs to sit. When the student registers for an ESHCC course on OSIRIS the student is automatically registered for the written exam. For resit exams the student will have to register on OSIRIS separately between 26 and 5 working days before the exam date.
5. If the Examination Board provides the possibility to register for an exam outside of the regular registration period, an administration fee with a maximum of €20.00 per exam will be charged.

Article 8.2 – Content of exams

1. An exam covers the material covered in the corresponding course in the current academic year.
2. The examiner or the Examination Board can make individual arrangements for courses that have been discontinued; such arrangements may be made up to a maximum of 1 year after the academic year in which the course was taught for the last time.

Article 8.3 – Sequence of exams and progress in relation to the thesis trajectory

1. Students in the specialisation programmes of the degree programme Arts & Culture should have completed the Master Thesis Class (CC4008/CC4206/CC4107) before they can submit the Master Thesis (CC4050/CC4250/CC4150).
2. Students in the specialisation programmes of the degree programme Media Studies should have successfully passed the Master Class (CM4500) before they can submit the Master Thesis (CM5000).
3. Students in the specialisation programmes of the degree programme History should have successfully passed the Research Workshop, before they can submit the Master Thesis (CH4050).

Article 8.4 – Time periods and frequency of exams

1. An opportunity to take an exam and receive a final grade for a course is provided twice per academic year: by a regular exam and a resit.
2. The individual exam that comprises the largest part of the course assessment is eligible for a resit. The course guide on Canvas specifies which exam is eligible for a resit.
3. If a particular written exam is eligible for a resit, a student may resit a written exam for which the student has already obtained a passing grade, the highest mark achieved will then count. This is only possible within the academic year in which the course was completed. A resit of a written exam may thus be graded with a maximum grade of 10.
4. An exam in the form of a paper that comprises the largest part of the course assessment, for which a student receives a fail (5.4 or lower) is eligible for a resit. The student will be given 15 working days to submit their revised work, counted from the moment when the student receives the grade and feedback on the first version. A resit paper may be graded with a maximum grade of 6.0.
5. An exam in the form of a final assignment or paper with a passing grade (5.5 or higher) is not eligible for a resit.
6. Papers or take-home exams that are submitted late will not be marked. Papers that are submitted late- will not get a (another) resit opportunity.
7. Notwithstanding the previous clauses, intermediate exams are offered only once a year and have no resits.
8. The aforementioned clauses determine that students may not retake and resit passed courses in subsequent academic years.
9. The submission and assessment of the Master Thesis is subject to the timetables, guidelines and procedures as stipulated in the course guide for the Master Thesis and on the degree programme's website.

Article 8.5 – Administration of exams

1. The exams for the courses referred to in Appendix 9-12 and 14-16 are administered in a written format or in some other way. Assessment takes place according to the method described in the course guide and website. This generally involves a combination of assessment methods.
2. In exceptional circumstances and at the student's request, the Examination Board may allow an exam to be administered in another format than indicated in the course guide and website.
3. At the examiner's request, the Examination Board may decide an exam to be administered in another format or at a different time than indicated in the course guide. The students involved will be notified of said adjustment no later than five weeks before the exam in question through Canvas and email.
4. The Master Thesis results from a research project that a student carries out individually and independently, and is assessed individually.
5. The Faculty is responsible for the proper administration of exams and will take the appropriate measures to ensure this. The Examination Board may delegate this authority to the most appropriate body or person.

Article 8.6 – Oral exams

1. Oral exams are always taken individually and take place at the end of course, when the class meetings have finished.
2. Oral exams are public unless the student objects.
3. An oral exam assessed by one examiner only, will be audio recorded. The examiner will archive the audio file for two years after the assessment.
4. Oral presentations are not considered oral exams but practical exercises that take place during the class meetings of the course and that can be part of the assessment of the course (c.f. Definitions, below practical).

Article 8.7 – Preservation time period for written exams and theses

1. The computations and assessed works from written exams will be preserved (in paper or digital form) for two years after the assessment.
2. The thesis and its assessment will be preserved (in paper or digital form) for seven years after the assessment.

Article 8.8 - Fraud

1. Fraud is understood to mean: Any acts or omissions of a student aimed at rendering it impossible, either wholly or in part, for the examiner or the Examination Board to make a proper assessment of the student's knowledge, understanding and skills or of the knowledge, understanding and skills of fellow students.
2. The following are in any case considered as fraud:
 - a. to appropriate the questions or assignments of an exam before the date or time on which the exam is scheduled;
 - b. to pose as someone else during the exam or to have themselves represented by someone else at the exam;
 - c. to consult or have within reach books, workbooks, notes or other sources of information of which the use is not explicitly permitted during the exam;
 - d. to consult information and/or communication technology of which the use is not explicitly permitted during the exam;
 - e. to use a mobile telephone during the exam. Mobile telephones should be switched off and out of reach during the whole exam. A mobile telephone should therefore not be carried in case of a visit to the toilet during the exam;
 - f. to consult with the exams of other students during the exam or to exchange information in any way whatsoever either inside or outside of the exam room; Providing others the opportunity to commit fraud will also be rebuked as fraud;
 - g. to amend already handed in exams during the inspection afterwards;
 - h. to commit (self)plagiarism, in this context also understood to mean to copy from their own or someone else's work an extract larger than a couple of words literally or translated for the purpose of a paper, thesis or any other type of assessment being part of the teaching without indicating this by means of quotation marks or another univocal typographic means, and without including bibliographically traceable and correct acknowledgements.

3. For online proctored exams or take-home exams, the following activities are also considered fraud:
 - a. use of someone else's ID or student card;
 - b. use or attempted use of unpermitted sources and resources, such as internet, mobile phone;
 - c. the student is no longer in sight of the webcam and/or has switched off the microphone, while taking the exam, insofar this takes place outside the (possible) authorized breaks;
 - d. (attempted) technical modifications that undermine the proctor system;
 - e. reaching out – through any means – to fellow students during the exam;
4. Depending on the gravity of the committed fraud, including repeated fraud, the Examination Board can impose sanctions on the student, including in any case the following:
 - a. reprimand;
 - b. nullification of the assignment, paper or thesis concerned;
 - c. nullification of the exam concerned;
 - d. exclusion from the exam concerned for a period of one year at most;
 - e. exclusion from one or more exam rounds;
 - f. exclusion from handing in the thesis for a period of one year at most
 - g. a combination of the above measures;
 - h. proposal to the Executive Board to definitively end the registration for the programme concerned.
5. If fraud or plagiarism is detected in a group assignment, all members of the group will be held accountable. Every member of the group is required to show evidence that proves their innocence.
6. Before the Examination Board decides upon a case of fraud, it will investigate the state of affairs.

Article 8.9 – Invalidation exam results

The Examination Board is authorized to declare (interim) exam results invalid if it has become impossible to make a proper assessment of the student's knowledge, understanding and skills.

SECTION 9 – EXAM RESULTS

Article 9.1 – Establishing and announcing exam results

1. The examiner will assign a mark immediately following an oral exam and present the student with written proof of the mark (results sheet).
2. The examiner will mark a written exam within 15 working days after the day on which the exam is administered, and will record the grade in OSIRIS, the university student administration system. In exceptional cases, the Examination Board may allow deviations from this time period.
3. The examiner will establish the results of intermediate exams as soon as possible or according to the deadline as specified in the course guide, but ultimately before the final exam for that course.
4. The Examination Board checks whether the terms referred to in the previous paragraphs are maintained.
5. The Student Administration Office that handles exams for the Faculty is responsible for recording the exam and for issuing the diploma.

Article 9.2 – Grading

All exams are graded either on a scale from 0 to 10 points (with 0 being the lowest possible result, a 5.5 or higher a passing grade, and 10 as the highest possible grade), or on a Pass/Fail basis. Numerical grades may have one decimal.

Article 9.3 – Validity

1. The validity period of passed courses - including components taken elsewhere that are approved as part of the examination programme - and granted exemptions is unlimited. The Dean may only limit the term of validity of a course obtained if the knowledge, insight or skills tested are demonstrably outdated.
2. Regarding a course of which the validity period has expired, the Examination Board can indicate a replacement course or require a student to take an additional or replacement exam before allowing the student to sit the Bachelor's examination.
3. If a course is tested using more than one interim exam, the validity period of the interim exams is restricted to the academic year in which the interim exams were completed.

Article 9.4 – Right of inspection

1. For a period of 20 working days following publication of the mark for an exam, upon request the student will be given the opportunity to inspect their work and discuss the results with the examiner if the student so desires.
2. During the period specified in the first paragraph, any student can be informed of the questions and assignments of the exam in question, as well as the standards against which the assessment was conducted.
3. The Examination Board or the examiner can decide that the inspection of the exam and assessment standards or the discussion of the results must take place at a set time and place. If a student can demonstrate that forces beyond their control will keep or kept them from being present at the set time and place, the student will be offered an alternative opportunity, within the period referred to in paragraph 1 if possible.
4. The Examination Board may accept deviations from the provisions in the first, second and third sections.

SECTION 10 – EXEMPTIONS

Article 10.1 – Exemptions

1. In principle, no exemptions are granted for courses in the master's degree programme.
2. Students enrolled in the Research Master Sociology, Culture, Media and the Arts, who have completed a MSc in Sociology, MA in Arts and Culture or MA in Media Studies with excellent results (GPA 8.0 and MA thesis 8.0) may request a maximum of 57.5 credits in exemptions, as determined by the Admissions Committee.

SECTION 11 – MASTER'S EXAMINATION

Article 11.1 – Master's examination

1. The Examination Board shall determine the results of the master's examination and shall award a certificate as referred to in Art. 11.4 once the student has met the requirements of the degree programme.
2. Prior to determining the results of the master's examination, the Examination Board may examine the knowledge of the student with regard to one or more sections or aspects of the degree programme, if and insofar as the results of the relevant exams give grounds to do so.
3. The examination date is determined as the day on which the Board determines that the student has successfully completed the master's examination.
4. A condition of passing the master's examination and the issue of the certificate is that the student was registered for the degree programme in the period in which the exams were taken.

Article 11.2 – Judicium cum laude

1. The judicium 'cum laude' is conferred to the master's examination if the weighted grade average of all the results achieved in the degree programme is 8.25 or higher.

2. The weighted average grade for the degree programme is based on the results for all courses (including the thesis trajectory) for which a final grade is established.
3. All results are weighted according to their assigned credits.
4. Courses and course elements which are assessed on a Pass/Fail basis do not count towards the weighted average.
5. Grades obtained abroad will be converted to a Pass/Fail on the students' diploma and do not count towards the weighted average.

Article 11.3 – Degree

1. Students who have successfully completed the master's examination in Arts & Culture, History and/or Media Studies are granted the title Master of Arts (MA).
2. Students who have successfully completed the master's examination in Sociology of Culture, Media and the Arts are granted the title Master of Science (MSc) in Media Studies (research).
3. The academic title thus conferred will be specified on the master diploma.

Article 11.4 – Master's certificate

1. The Examination Board shall confer a degree certificate as proof that the master's examination has been successfully completed. One certificate per degree programme shall be conferred, even if the student completes more specialisation programmes within a degree programme.
2. The Examination Board shall include a transcript of records and the Diploma Supplement with this certificate, to provide insight into the nature and content of the degree programme completed.
3. If an honours programme, as referred to in art. 5.3, is successfully completed, a separate certificate stating this shall be conferred.

SECTION 12 – PRE-MASTER PROGRAMME

Article 12.1 – Pre-master programme

1. The degree programmes Arts & Culture, History and Media Studies have each established a pre-master programme for graduates of related university and higher vocational school programmes, which consists of a curriculum to eliminate deficiencies before admission to the master programme. According to Dutch law a pre-master programme may consist of 30-70 credits.
2. The pre-master programmes Arts & Culture consist of 50 credits.
3. The pre-master programme History consist of 45 credits
4. The pre-master programmes Media Studies consist of 45 credits.
5. On completion of a pre-master programme the student acquires a certificate of admission to the relevant master programme but not a bachelor's degree.
6. A student of the pre-master programme only acquires a certificate of admission to the relevant master programme if the pre-master programme has been successfully completed within the time frame of two academic years after first enrolment in the programme.
7. The pre-master certificate of admission to the relevant master programme is, upon obtaining the certificate, valid for the subsequent two academic years only.
8. The content of the pre-master programmes in preparation for the specialisation programmes of the degree programme are noted in Appendix 14-16.
9. The Teaching and Examination Regulations of the Master programmes also apply to the pre-master programmes, unless stated otherwise.

Article 12.2 – Additional provisions pre-master programme History

Pre-master students should have successfully passed the Bachelor Thesis Class before they can submit the Bachelor Thesis (CH3100).

Article 12.3 – Additional provisions pre-master programme Media Studies

1. The student can only start with writing the Premaster Research Paper (CM0065) after having passed the Premaster Research Project (proposal stage) (CM0060).

2. The submission and assessment of the Premaster Research Paper is subject to the timetables, guidelines and procedures as stipulated in the course guide for the Premaster Research Paper and Premaster Research Project (proposal stage) and on the degree programme's website.

Article 12.4 – Exemptions in the pre-master programme

1. At the student's request and after having consulted the examiner in question if necessary, the Examination Board can grant a student exemption from one or more courses that are part of the pre-master programme, as referred to in Appendix 14-16.
2. Exemptions will be granted if the student has achieved a passing mark on an exam that is a comparable component of a degree programme offered at a research university in terms of contents, level and credits, or if the student has acquired professional knowledge, or experience in that subject outside the higher education system.
3. No exemptions are granted for the Bachelor Graduation Project (premaster Arts & Culture) Bachelor Thesis Class and Bachelor Thesis (premaster History), the Premaster Research paper and Premaster Research Project (premaster Media Studies).

Article 12.4 – Admission to pre-master programme

The admission requirements to the pre-master programmes are stipulated in Appendix 17.

SECTION 13 - STUDY PROGRESS AND STUDENT COUNSELLING

Article 13.1 – Study progress

1. A student can download a study progress overview via Osiris student. If a certified copy is required, it can be requested from the Erasmus Student Service Centre (ESSC).
2. The relevant credits are awarded when the student has achieved a passing mark on a course or has been granted an exemption.
3. Credits are only awarded once for each course that a student passes, on the date at which the requirements for that course are completed.

Article 13.2 – Student counselling

1. The degree programme provides the introduction and student counselling to students registered for the degree programme, partly for the benefit of their orientation for potential study paths in and outside the degree programme.
2. The student counselling consists of:
 - An introduction in the first week of the academic year.
 - Group and individual counselling on potential study paths in and outside the degree programme, partly with a view to the career opportunities after the degree programme.
 - Group and individual counselling about study skills, study planning and the choice of follow-up courses.
 - Group and individual counselling by student counsellors, student psychologists, confidential counsellor and career advisor on campus.
 - The provision of referral and assistance to students experiencing difficulties during their studies.

Article 13.3 – Studying with a functional impairment

1. Students with a disability or a chronic illness are offered the opportunity to adapt their study, as far as is reasonably possible, to the restrictions determined by the disability or chronic illness. These adaptations will be aligned as far as possible to the student's individual functional impairment but may not affect the course or the degree programme's quality or degree of difficulty.
2. Students should consult the student advisor and then submit a request to the Examination Board, accompanied by a statement from an authorised agency or specialist. In case of dyslexia, the EUR Dyslexia Protocol applies.

SECTION 14 – TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 14.1 – Hardship clause

In exceptional individual circumstances, in which application of one or more of the provisions set out in these regulations leads to evidently unreasonable and/or unfair situations with regard to a student, the Examination Board may depart from said provision(s) in favour of the student.

Article 14.2 – Right of appeal

1. Any Decision taken by an examiner or by the Examination Board, including a refusal to make a Decision, can be appealed to with the Board of Appeal for Examinations (CBE) (cbe@eur.nl) on the grounds of a conflict with the written and unwritten rules. This includes appeals regarding examination results.
2. The period of appeal is six weeks and starts on the day after the date of notification of the Decision.

Article 14.3 – Complaint procedure

In case of complaints, students are requested to follow the standing complaint procedure, which is published on the degree programme's website.

Article 14.4 – Amendments

1. Amendments to these regulations will be drawn up by the Dean, in a separate resolution, after approval of the Faculty Council and Programme Committee, where the WHW so requires.
2. No amendments pertaining to the current academic year will take place, unless the interests of the students remain reasonably unharmed.
3. No amendment may take place which disadvantages a student by influencing a prior Decision regarding the student taken by the Examination Board in accordance with these regulations.

Article 14.5 – Announcement

The Dean is responsible for an appropriate announcement of these regulations and of amendments to these regulations.

Article 14.6 – Adoption and implementation

These regulations are adopted by the Dean after receiving the approval of the Faculty Council and Programme Committees, where such approval is required by law, and enter into effect on 1 September 2022.

12	write a report that complies with academic-historical prerequisites (including the formulation of sound research questions, a literature review, an application of theory to empirical cases, a clear structure and composition, an adequate argumentation supported by empirical evidence, and proper annotation).
	DD 5: Learning ability
	Graduates will be able to:
13	evaluate complex theses from the field of history and demonstrate awareness of international and cultural variations
14	independently and creatively apply academic skills in academic and professional contexts outside the historical field.

APPENDIX 7 – Intended learning outcomes MA Media Studies

The intended learning outcomes of the degree programme, as described below, specify the required knowledge, understanding and competences of graduates of the degree programme.

Graduates will have gained knowledge and understanding of the following:

1. Key theoretical developments, issues and discussions in the academic study of media and communication.
2. Theory development and research regarding current policies, communication practices, strategic organizational issues and developments in sectors spanning business, media, and creative industries.
3. Key academic research methods and techniques as they apply to the field of media and communication.

Graduates have an academic mind, a critical disposition and excellent written and oral expression skills.

They are able to:

4. Systematically analyse complex processes and issues within the media sector as well as media and communication issues within organizations and society.
5. Critically evaluate the functioning of researchers, policy makers and professionals in the field of media and communication and the aforementioned sectors (business, media, and creative industries) and to make a constructive contribution to innovations in policy, communication, organization and strategy.
6. Independently conduct research in the field of media and communication by applying various (qualitative and quantitative) research methods, document this in a clearly structured argumentation, and reflect on the research, the research process and possible implications.
7. Apply the gained knowledge and skills independently and creatively within the media and communication sector, media and communication research, and the (media and communication) policy and strategy of governments, NGOs, companies and other organizations, and the public debate about media.

APPENDIX 8 – Intended learning outcomes Research Master in Sociology of Culture, Media and the Arts

The aim of the degree programme is to prepare students for the further practice of socio-cultural scientific research as part of postgraduate PhD study and doctoral research. To this end, students will acquire knowledge of and insight into the disciplinary and theoretical approaches in the social sciences (i.e. the breadth of the field), gain extensive theoretical knowledge of the sociology of culture, media and arts (i.e. the depth of the field) and gain competencies in the area of both applied and more academically oriented social scientific research.

As such, the degree programme prepares students for an academic career (i.e. for PhD positions at academic institutions targeting sub-fields of the discipline sociology of culture, media and the arts; for research functions at national and international research institutes, as well as private and public institutes, and for research-oriented policy positions at public and semi-public institutions/agencies and organisations of a public nature).

The intended learning outcomes of the degree programme can be summarised in the following competencies, which students will possess upon completing the degree programme:

Graduates have in-depth knowledge, comprehensive understanding and critical awareness of:

1. the main theoretical insights, academic debates and approaches, as well as the current state of research in their field of study (Dublin Descriptor 1).
2. current problems and/or new insights, much of which is at the forefront or informed by their academic discipline (Dublin Descriptor 1).
3. methods and techniques applicable to their own research/advanced scholarship (Dublin Descriptor 1).
4. different academic contexts and academic cultures (Dublin descriptor 1, 4 and 5).

Graduates have the ability/inclination to:

5. apply theoretical knowledge and research methods in an original and innovative way, combined with a practical understanding of how established techniques of research and enquiry are used to create and interpret knowledge in their field of study (Dublin Descriptor 2).
6. apply their knowledge and research skills in new or multidisciplinary settings related to their field of study (Dublin Descriptor 2 & 5).
7. critically evaluate current research and advanced scholarship in the field, evaluate methodologies and assess them critically, and, where appropriate, propose new hypotheses, concepts, and approaches (Dublin Descriptor 2 & 3).
8. deal with complex issues both systematically and creatively and make sound judgments in the absence of complete data (Dublin Descriptor 2 & 3).
9. communicate their viewpoints and findings in a clear and responsible manner to scientific and non-scientific audiences (Dublin Descriptor 4).
10. collaborate and communicate effectively with people who have diverse (e.g. national, cultural, disciplinary) backgrounds and function adequately in internationally and culturally diverse professional and academic settings (Dublin Descriptor 5).
11. advance their knowledge and understanding and to develop new skills to a high level in a largely self-directed and autonomous manner and continue to look across the border of their own field of study, home countries and cultures (Dublin Descriptor 5).
