Two quotes of established scholars may underline the importance of this project:

- (1) “Nationalism give shape to soccer loyalties and the Olympic games, as well as to wars and economic competition.” (Calhoun, 2017: 18) and;
- (2) “The Imagined Community of Millions seems more real as a team of eleven named people. The individual, even the one who only cheers, becomes a symbol of his nation himself.” (Hobsbawn 1990: 143).

When did women’s football start at your club, region, nation? Is this relatively late/ early –compared to other clubs in your region/ country why?

When did the first players of color arrive? How was she/he received?

To what extent has religion been important for your club, region, nation? Do the teams play on Saturday/Sunday?

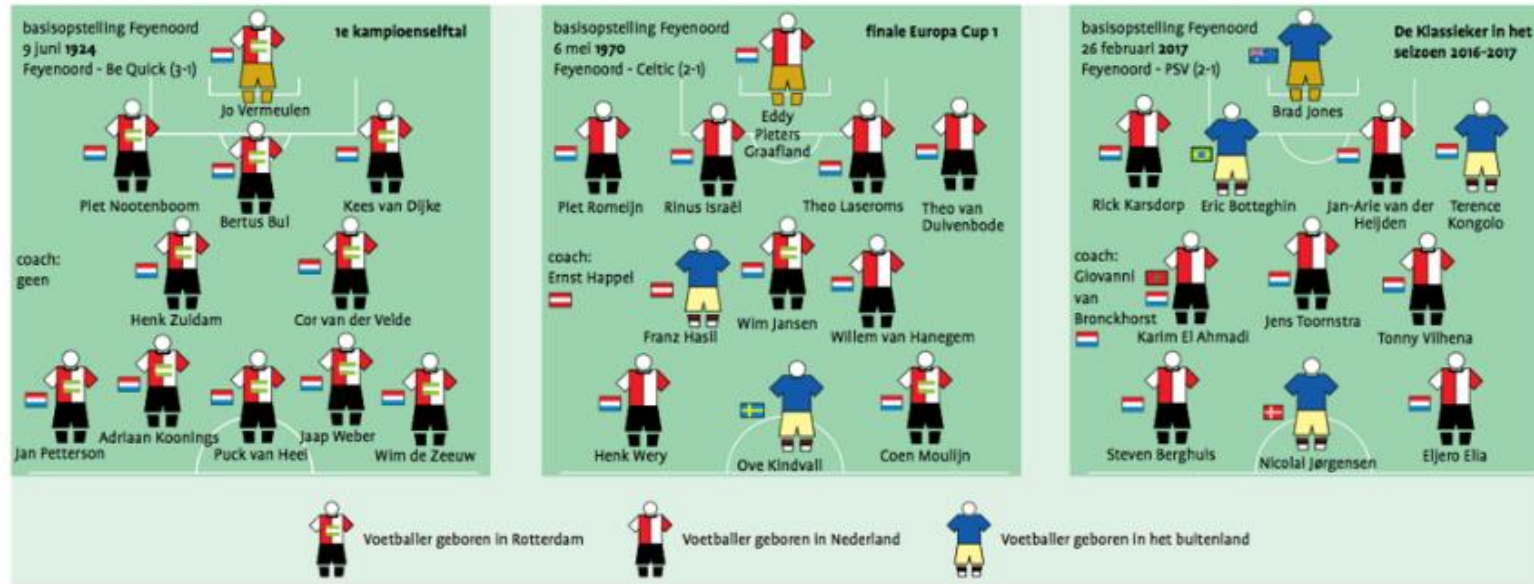

To what extent plays class a role in you club. Did your club belong to a ‘upperclass’ club or a ‘working class club’. Did this change over time? Why/how?
