

Erasmus Graduate School of Law | Policy

Employed PhD researcher Fulltime

Contract PhD researcher Fulltime

External (or parttime) PhD researcher

Employee conducting PhD research

EDLE PhD researcher Fulltime

- Fulltime (1,0 or 0,8 fte)
- Part of EGSL
- At least two (co)supervisors
- Registration in Hora Finita from the start

- Training and supervision plan within 3 months from the start
- Admission requirements (relevant MA diploma and English proficiency test)

- According to principles academic integrity: Honesty, Scrupulousness, Transparency, Independence, Responsibility

EGSL educational programme

- Research Lab
- Writing Clinic
- Academic Integrity and Responsible Research
- Academic Writing in English (excluding mother tongue speakers)
- Introduction to Research Methods
- Managing your PhD
- Communicate your PhD research
- The Empirical Research Cycle

Optional (approval by supervisors):

- Introduction to Empirical Legal Research

EGSL digital educational programme

- Research Design 1
- Research Design 2
- Academic Integrity and Responsible research

Optional (approval by supervisors):

- All other courses

EDLE educational programme

(check EDLE information)

EGSL (digital) educational programme:

- Research Design 1 & 2
- Academic Writing in English
- Communicate your PhD research
- Academic Integrity and Responsible research
- Managing your PhD

Optional (approval by supervisors):

- All other courses

Monitoring by EGSL Doctorate committee*
12- 14 (no go)/28/40-month meeting.

Monitoring by EGSL Doctorate Committee
12-14 (go no go)/36/54 months. Max duration = 6 years

EDLE monitoring system, half-yearly evaluations

Limited teaching (guest lecture, supervise thesis etc.) except when PhD position explicitly includes teaching tasks

Teaching not allowed within hospitality agreement

Teaching not allowed within hospitality agreement

In most cases teaching is main task

Teaching not allowed within hospitality agreement or EDLE employment contract