

What will you learn?

An Italian A1 course consists of ten weekly sessions of 2,5 hours each. During this course you will learn the basics of the Italian language, with emphasis on speaking and listening skills in an everyday context. Topics that are covered include:

- asking and giving personal details (nationality, profession, languages & spare time);
- greetings and farewells;
- counting up to 100;
- spelling;
- applying the grammar knowledge (including articles, presente e passato prossimo indicativo of regular and irregular verbs);
- vocabulary);
- (near native) pronunciation.

In addition, you will be able to understand and write simple texts. You will also have a small vocabulary with which you can formulate simple sentence structures for common and everyday situations. The final level of the course is A1 according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).
