

What will you learn?

An English B2.2 course consists of ten weekly sessions of 1,5 hours each. This English for academic purposes course is a continuation of the course English B2.1. The main aim of this course is to equip participants with skills so that they can function quite confidently when using English in mostly, but not exclusively, academic situations. The course covers all major skills. They are:

- listening;
- speaking- discussing, debating and giving presentations on a wide variety of subjects;
- reading & comprehension;
- writing- essays, reports analysing graphs, application letters and Curriculum Vitae;
- critical thinking;
- grammar;
- vocabulary.

Besides further improving the acquired knowledge of grammatical structures, you will also focus on expanding your vocabulary. By the end of this course, you will have learned to communicate in various situations. This course can be described as a blended learning course. The final level of the course is B2.2 according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).
