

What will you learn?

A Spanish B1.1 course consists of ten weekly sessions of 2,5 hours each. This course is a continuation of the course Spanish A2.2. During this course you will continue with the previously learned topics of the Spanish language, with emphasis on reading, speaking, listening and writing skills in an everyday context. Topics that are covered include:

- describing people and their personalities;
- expressing personal preferences;
- invitations and advice;
- health;
- holding a longer conversation;
- formal text writing;
- grammar and vocabulary;
- the Spanish culture.

In this course, your vocabulary will significantly increase to be able to communicate at a higher level. The final level of the course is B1.1 according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).
