

What will you learn?

German natives are quick learners of the Dutch language, so with this special course two levels are covered. Dutch A1-A2.2 consists of 15 weekly sessions of 2,5 hours each. During this course you will learn the basics of the Dutch language, with emphasis on reading, speaking, listening and writing skills in an everyday context. Topics that are covered include:

- presenting yourself;
- greetings and farewells;
- making an appointment;
- café, market, restaurant and shop;
- real estate agent; family doctor, bicycle repair; birthdays;
- grammar;
- vocabulary;
- the Dutch culture.

By the end of the course, you will have a small vocabulary to be able to communicate in common and everyday situations. The final level of the course is A2.2 according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).

Good to know

- This course is available for participants with an academic background (hbo/university).
- The course can be fully booked before the deadline
- Course participants are expected to spend approximately three hours a week on course preparation and self-study.
- Attendance is not compulsory, but advisable. If you use the special fee, you must attend at least 80% of the classes. Please note that the last class consists of an oral test and a listening test. To pass the course, you should be present on that particular day. A final written exam is part of this course. Dyslectic students can get extra time to complete the written test. To arrange this, you need to contact the LTC via email. You will also have to send a copy of your official statement of special needs.
- A certificate is awarded to participants who achieve a 'pass' for all four skills.

Groups

Our groups are small: the minimum number of participants is 12, the maximum is 16. Please note that the LTC reserves the right to cancel this course if the required minimum number of participants is not reached. Whenever a course is canceled due to few registrations, you will be informed and your fee will be refunded.
