

“A Multiperspective Understanding of the Past: The Elephant in the Room of Diverse Societies?”

SYMPOSIUM PROGRAMME

subject to change

Date:	14 July 2017
Location:	The Mandeville Building at Erasmus University, Rotterdam
Programme
9:30 - 10:00	Registrations and welcome Opening remarks by EUROCLIO Director Jonathan Even-Zohar and Anna Lindh Foundation Representative Jaco Stoop
10:00 - 11:30	Panel discussion: “Sensitive history in the Netherlands” <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Timothy Ryback (Director, Institute for Historical Justice and Reconciliation)- Niels Weitkamp (National Committee 4 and 5 May)- Bjorn Wansink (Assistant Professor Education and Pedagogy, Utrecht University)
11:30 - 11:45	Break
11:45 - 13:00	Panel discussion: “Dealing with the past: a global perspective” <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Meena Malhotra (India)- Senada Jusic (Bosnia and Herzegovina)- Khaled El Masri (Lebanon)- Olesya Skrypnyk (Ukraine)
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 15:15	First round of parallel workshops <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Ineke Mok (Cultuursporen) - Quaco. Leven in Slavernij- Stanley Iwema and Melik Keskin (IHJR) - Discussion Group about IHJR Social Cohesion Project
15:15 - 15:30	Break
15:30 - 16:45	Second round of parallel workshops <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Femke de Koning (Anne Frank House) - Stories that Move- Antheun Janse (VGN) - Discussion Group about Global Citizenship
16:45 - 17:30	Conclusions, reflections and closing remarks Remarks by Pavel Tychtl of the European Commission
17:30 - 18:30	Drinks

This event is made possible by