

WHY YOU NEED AN ORCID iD

- Enhance discoverability, recognition & visibility of your research

- Linking your research publications to your ORCID iD increases the discoverability of you as a researcher and your professional activities.

- Avoid name confusion

- Your sixteen digit ORCID iD distinguishes you from other researchers with common or similar names.

- One ORCID iD throughout your scholarly career

- ORCID travels with you across organizations, institutions and countries. Your ORCID iD can be used to track your research output throughout your career.

- ORCID for funding and/or publishing

- Increasingly recognizing the importance of Open Science, ORCID has been integrated in publishers, funders, research institutions and database providers workflows. Databases include: Scopus, Wiley Online Library, HeinOnline. See our EUR ORCID LibGuide for more info.
